

Digital Transformation in Legal Management Operations

The digital transformation point in the field of local and international procurement contracts

- The reasons for switching to the digital system and the advantages it achieves
- Provisions and controls of digital contracting for procurement
- Ensure the identity and identity of the parties to the contract under the digital contract
- Electronic Bidding
- Issuance of offering documents in digital form
- Maintain confidentiality of data and information

The electronic purchase procedure and the legal protection assigned to it:

- Types of Web/Click wrap Agreements
- The legality of electronic procurement methods for procurement
- Electronic payment and payment systems
- Tax and customs regulation of e-commerce
- The position of the World Trade Organization on e-commerce

Protecting contracts and procurement processes electronically and applying it in the Arab countries:

- Authentic electronic signature in transactions
- Electronic and digital signature in the laws and regulations of Arab countries
- The authorities concerned with issuing electronic signatures in the Arab countries
- Electronic encryption
- Ensure conformity of the electronic signature

Money, smart contracts and the Blockchain system:

- Blockchain, types of money and electronic money transfers
- How does the Blockchain system work, and its relationship to smart contracts?
- Verify the identity of the contractor and his ownership of the goods and documents in the Blockchain
- The role of the Blockchain system in documenting and validating contractual data and information
- The leading application of Blockchain contracting in the Emirate of Dubai

Rules for Documentation of Information and Electronic Dispute Resolution:

- Documentation and verification of the identity and identity of the parties to the contract under the digital contract
- Rules of the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO
- Jurisdiction in the electronic environment
- Electronic Arbitration